Come along with Ana and Fitri today!

They will learn about the different ways to nurture wisdom
in this blessed month of Ramadhan!

How many ways can you spot?

In Ramadhan, our Mosque Based Kindergarten children are discussing about their #MBKCareToShare project with Teacher Aishah.

Ana, Fitri and their friends are thinking of what food to donate for the charity drive.

Children, make sure your donated food is halal and healthy.

#MBKCareToShare Project Donate Halal and Healthy food!

I want to bring my favourite chocolates!

I will bring some biscuits!
They must be halal!
I must check for the Healthy Choice logo too!

Quran: The example of those who spend their wealth in the cause of Allah is that of a grain that sprouts into seven ears, each bearing one hundred grains. And Allah multiplies 'the reward even more' to whoever He wills. For Allah is All-Bountiful, All-Knowing. (Surah Al Baqarah 2: 261)

The next day, Ana, Fitri and their friends bring all their food donations to school.

Fitri! Look at my chocolates!
These are my favourite!

Oh...those chocolates look yummy! But I am fasting...

Children, say salam to Sis Raudhah.
She is a mosque volunteer.
She will be helping us pack
our donation bags.

ASSALAMUÁLAIKUM
WARAHMATULLAHI WABARAKUTUH!

Good morning, Sis Raudhah!

Hadith: "Every Muslim has to give in charity." The people asked, "O Allah's Prophet! If someone has nothing to give, what will he do?" He said, "He should work with his hands and benefit himself and also give in charity (from what he earns)." The people further asked, "If he cannot find even that?" He replied, "He should help the needy who appeal for help." Then the people asked, "If he cannot do that?" He replied, "Then he should perform good deeds and keep away from evil deeds, and this will be regarded as charitable deeds."

(Sahih al-Bukhari 1445)

The children start to sort and pack the donated items into the donation bags. Ana is about to put in a chocolate bar.

Ana, did you check if the chocolate has a 'Healthy Choice' logo?

Oh dear, I did not check. There isn't any.

Then, we should not put it in the donation bag.

Ana keeps the chocolates in her bag. As she walks away, she sees Fitri taking one of the chocolates from her bag.

Sis Raudhah, look at Fitri!
He is taking my chocolate!

Fitri, we must be honest and strong.
We must stop ourselves from doing bad deeds. Remember to always
'Be Strong, Be Good and Be Wise!'

Teacher Aishah asks the children, “Are you excited to go out and give away our donation bags?! Do you remember how we should behave when we visit our Zakat recipients? What are the rules? Let’s read them together.”

#MBKCareToShare Project

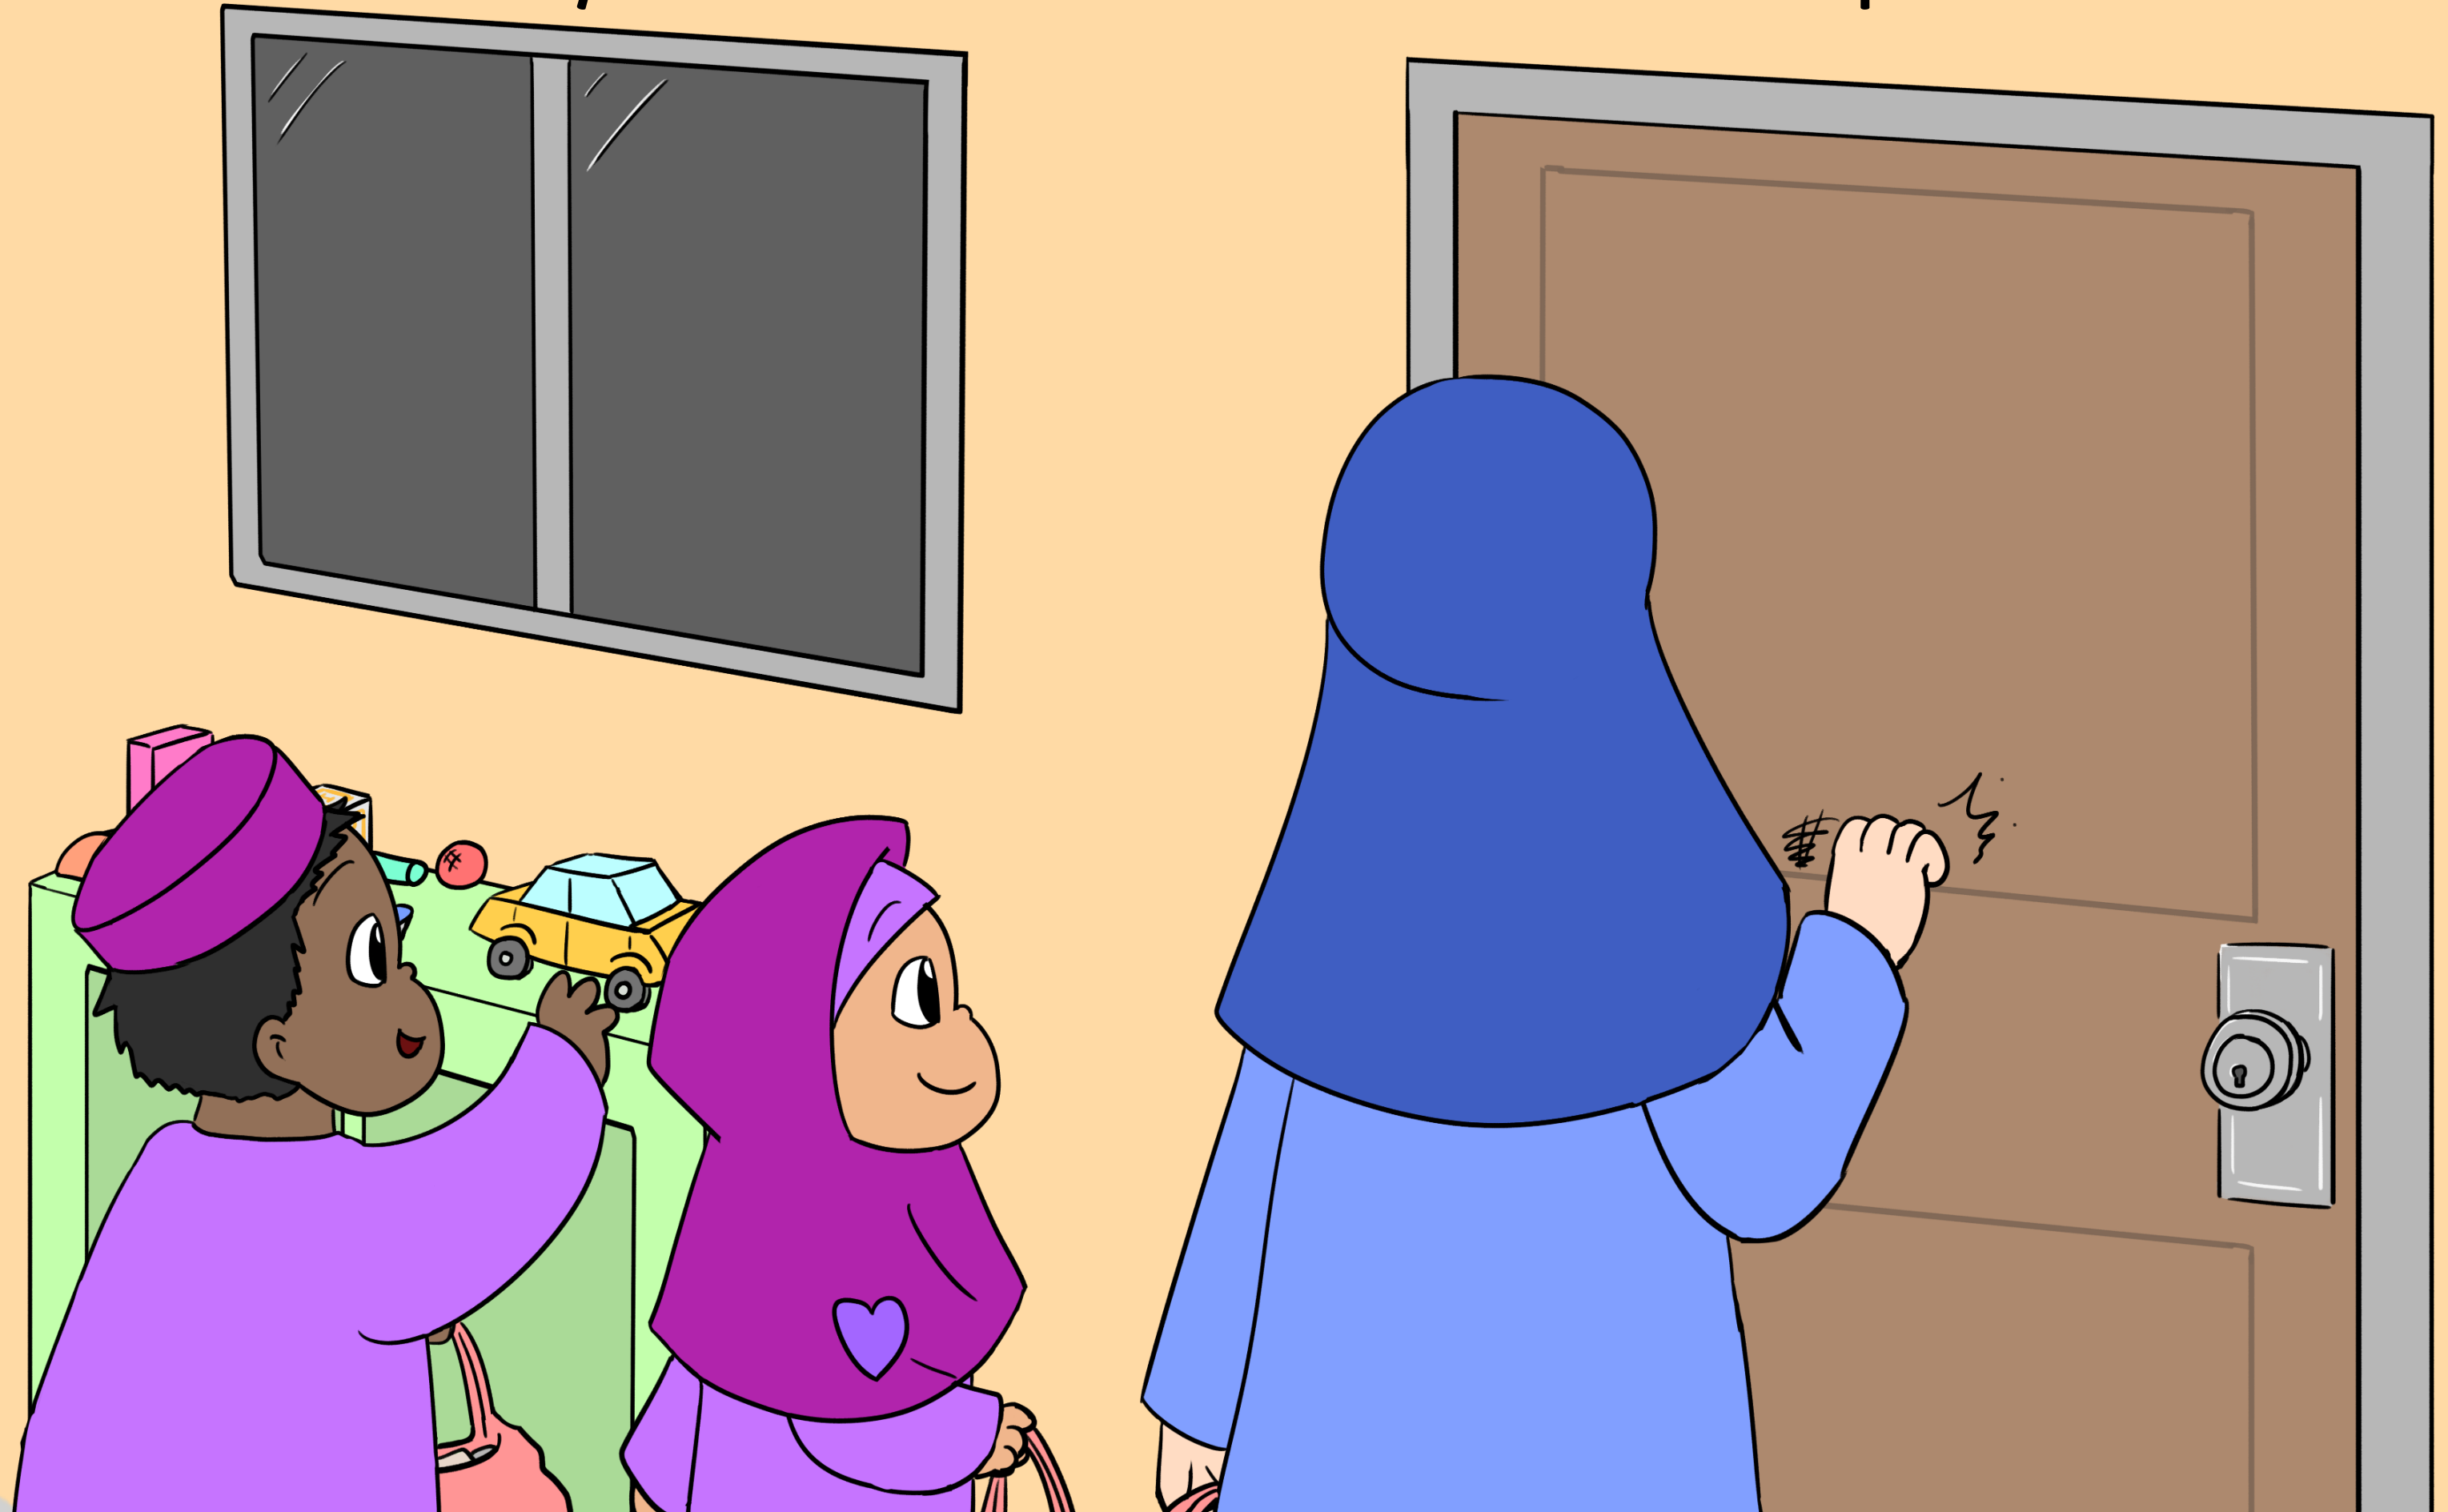

VISITING RULES:

1. Lower your gaze.
2. Say good things only.
3. Remember to be grateful.
4. Mind your manners while visiting.
5. Control yourselves from doing bad deeds.

YES, TEACHER AISHAH!

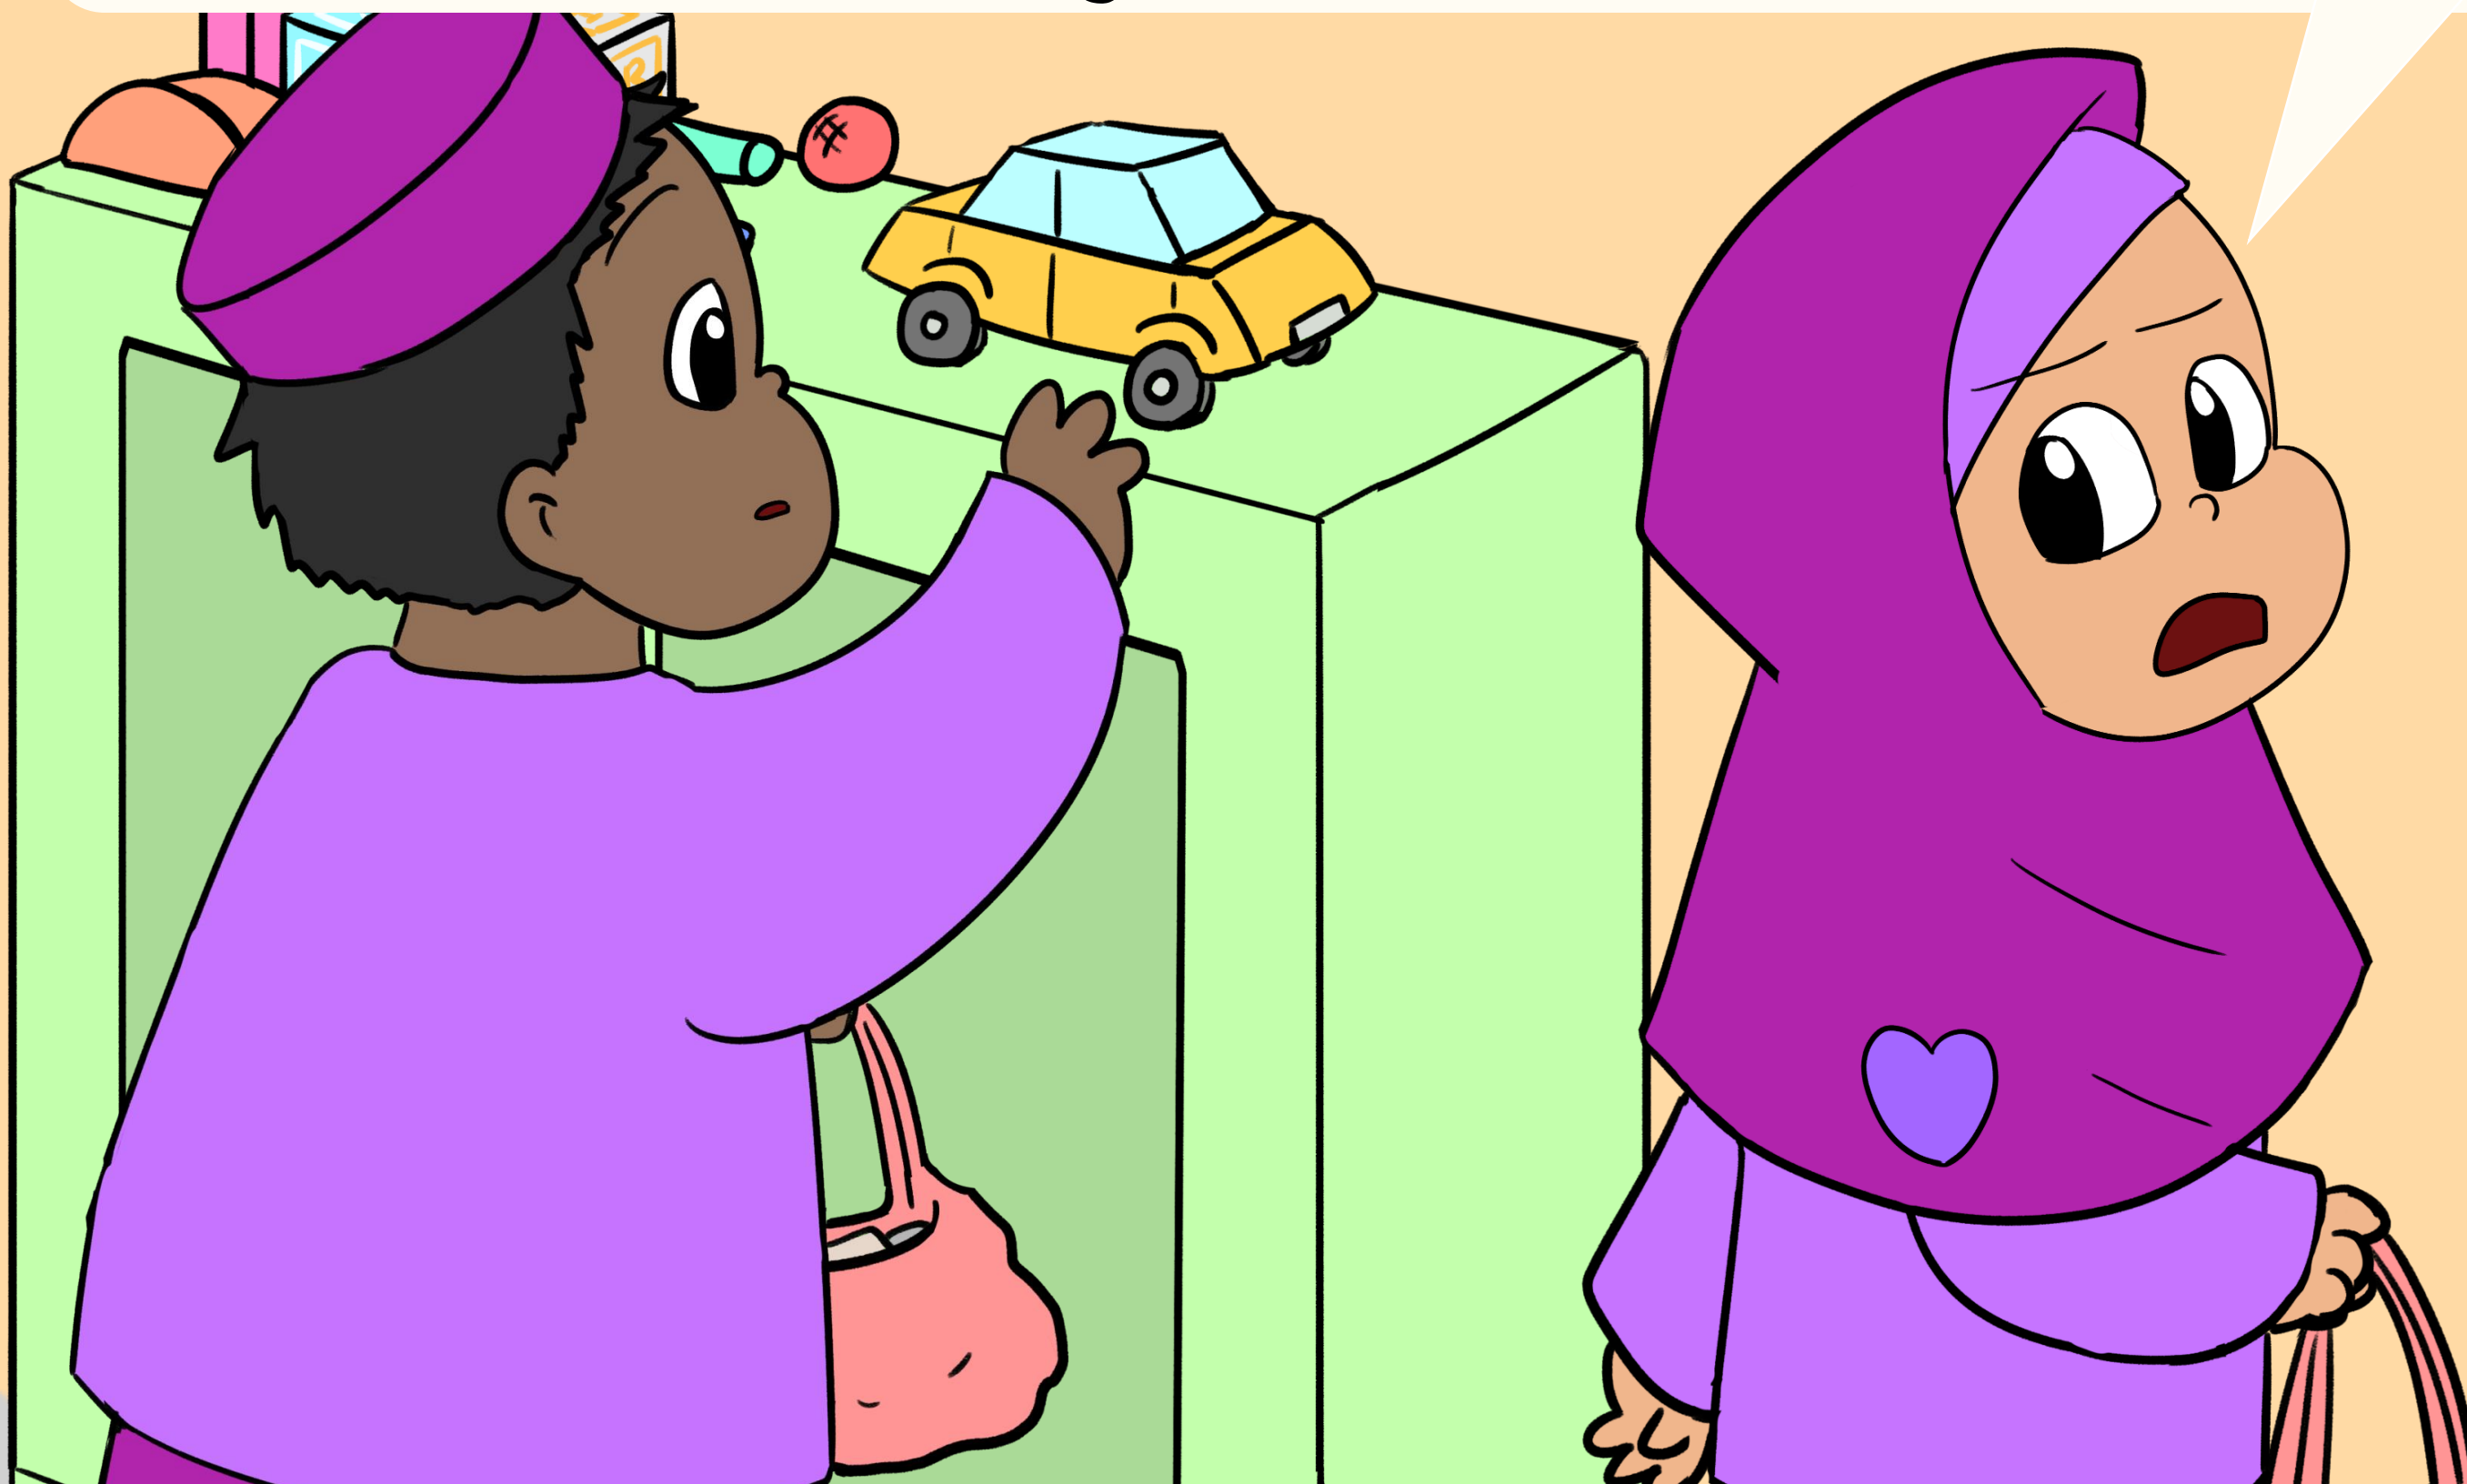

We promise to follow rules!

As Sis Raudhah knocks on the door, Fitri is seen tiptoeing and picking a toy car on the shoe cabinet outside a Zakat recipient's house.

Quran: O believers! Do not enter any house other than your own until you have asked for permission and greeted its occupants. This is best for you, so perhaps you will be mindful.
(Surah An Nur 24 :27)*

Fitri! We promised Teacher Aishah to control ourselves from doing bad deeds!
Do not take that toy! You are stealing! Remember what Sis Raudhah told us?
'Be Strong, Be Good and Be Wise!'

*Quran : O you who believe! Why do you say that which you do not do? It is most hateful to God that you should say that which you do not do.
(Surah As Saf 61 : 2 – 3)*

I have knocked the door 3 times, but it looks like no one is answering the door.

I can knock the door again!
Maybe they did not hear you!

No, Ana. We should remember our manners when visiting. If we have knocked 3 times and nobody answers, we should leave.

Hadith: It was narrated from Abu Saeed Khudri that Abu Musa asked permission to enter upon 'Umar three times, and he did not give him permission, so he went away. 'Umar sent word to him saying: "Why did you go back?" He said: "I asked permission to enter three times, as the Messenger of Allah (p.b.u.h), enjoined upon us, then if we are given permission we should enter, otherwise we should go back." (Sunan Ibn Majah 3706)

At another house, the door was opened. Sis Raudhah and the children stood at the side of the door of Atok's house and greeted him.

Assalamu'alaikum Atok!
We have a special bag
of goodies for you.

Wa'alaikumussalam. Maa Syaa Allah!
Syukran! Can you come in and help put the bag on the table, please?

Hadith: When the Messenger of Allah (pbuh) came to some people's door, he did not face it squarely, but faced the right or left corner, and said: Peace be upon you! peace be upon you! That was because there were no curtains on the doors of the house at that time.

(Sunan Abi Dawud 5186)

Oh no! That is a big pile of garbage bags!

Now I know where that smell is coming from.

Ana and Fitri, we should
say good things only.
Let's help Atok to throw the garbage bags.

While Ana and Fitri are throwing the garbage bags, they start talking about Atok's house which is dirty and smelly.

Children, we should lower our gaze when we visit other people's house.

Let's not talk about other people. We should be grateful that we can keep our houses clean. Alhamdulillah!

Back in class, Teacher Aishah is asking the children about the 'Takbir Challenge'. She reminds them to share their videos with her.

Yes teacher! I practice with my Abah every night, after we pray Terawih!

Teacher, can we help during the Hari Raya celebration at the mosque?

Yes, Ana. We will appreciate your help.

Hadith: "The dearest phrases to Allah are four: SubhanAllah (Glory be to Allah), Alhamdulillah (Praise be to Allah), La ilaha illaAllah (There is no deity but Allah) and Allahu Akbar (Allah is Greater). There is no harm for you in which of them begin with (while remembering Allah).

(Sahih Muslim 2137a)

During the Hari Raya celebration, the children help serve the guests.

Alhamdulillah, they have learnt many lessons on wisdom in Ramadhan.

InsyaAllah, they will remember to always 'Be Strong, Be Good and Be Wise!'

Alhamdulillah children!
You have done many good deeds!
Marha, Marha, Ana and Fitri!

This Ramadhan month presents many valuable opportunities and lessons for us to nurture wisdom to the children in our Mosque Based Kindergartens.

Follow Ana and Fitri as they learn many ways to nurture their wisdom.
